

LitFinder and Google Classroom

Gale offers seamless user login with your Google account to easily share and download content. This tip sheet shows how to use LitFinder and Google Classroom to create classroom assignments or announcements. Access LitFinder through BadgerLink.dpi.wi.gov!

Follow these simple steps

STEP ONE

Sign into your Google account from the LitFinder banner.

America Free - Or America Slave

Speech, 1856

John Jay

American Lawyer (1817 - 1894)

The Library of Oratory, Ancient and Modern, with Critical Studies of the World's Great Orators by Eminent Essayists. Ed. Chauncey M. Depew. Vol. 9. A. L. Fowle, 1902. p159.

Text:

LET US see, gentlemen, what this slave power is, which, trampling upon compacts and defying the constitution, controls the federal government and employs its army and its treasury to force slavery upon an unwilling people.

Discarding for the present all those considerations of right and justice which instinctively occur to every right-minded person when slavery is mentioned—foregoing on this occasion all expression of sympathy for the millions of beating hearts that in the arithmetic of slavery count but as units under

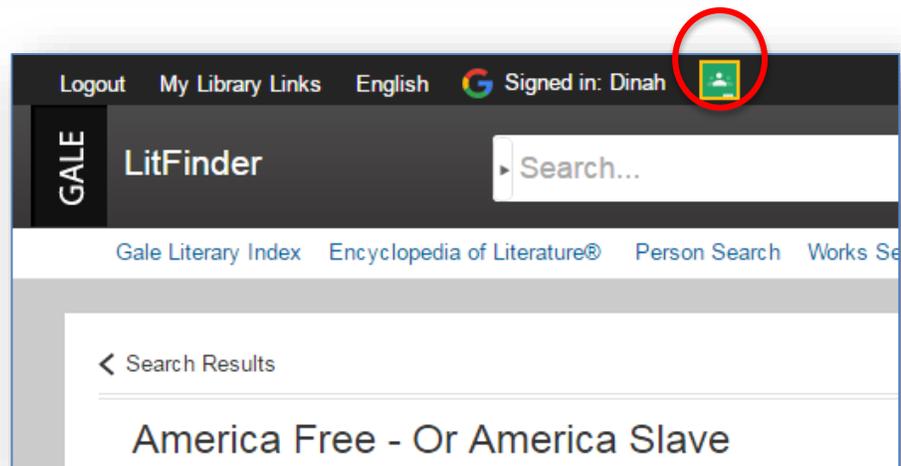

STEP TWO

Find content that's useful to you.

In this example, we've found a document, but you can also use the "Share to Classroom" tool to share any content in LitFinder.

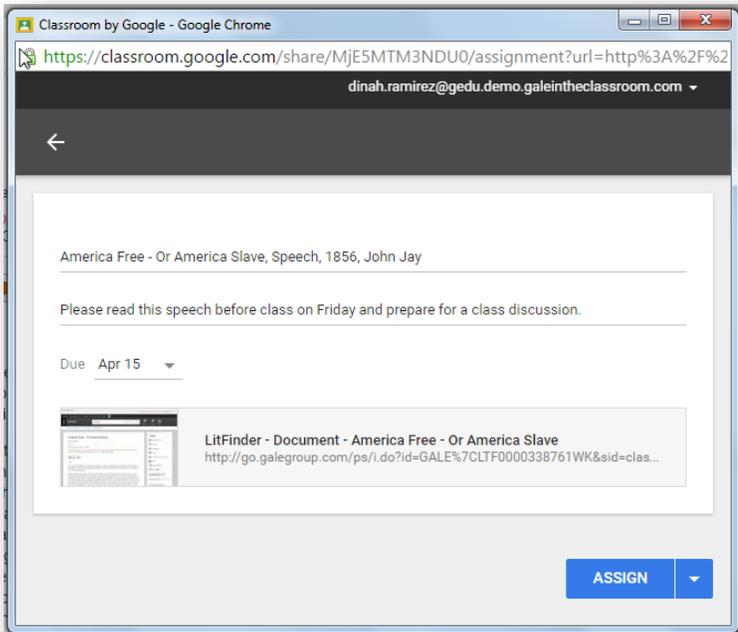

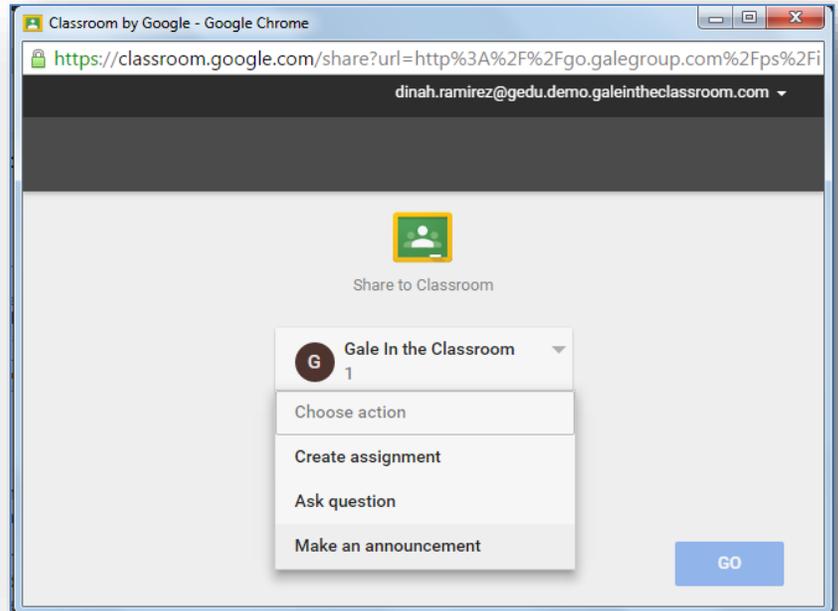

STEP THREE

Click the Share to Classroom icon from the top banner.

STEP FOUR

You'll be asked to choose a class and then to choose an action: Create Assignment, Ask question, or Make an announcement.

STEP FIVE

We've chosen to create an assignment.

Fill in these fields and click "Assign."

STEP SIX

You'll receive a confirmation that your assignment was posted to your class and an offer to view it.

If you require further assistance with Gale and Google Tools, please contact your librarian.

Questions?

BadgerLink Support

Toll-Free in Wisconsin 888-542-5543

<http://badgerlink.dpi.wi.gov/contact-us>

Gale Technical Support

1-800-877-4253