Author: Carr, Sarah

Publisher: Journal Sentinel Inc.

Date: 2006

Description: Fueling the momentum is the popularity of Broadway musicals such as "Cats" and "Les Misrables," which can have more sophisticated and extensive sets, costumes and special effects than some of the more old-fashioned musicals. Schools eager for a new challenge, and tired of more hackneyed productions such as "The Music Man" or "South Pacific," are quick to jump when musicals such as "Cats" become available. But it also puts pressure on the schools
