

Newspapers.com Library Edition

Search historical newspapers archive from the 1700s - 2000s containing thousands of well-known regional, state, and small local newspapers in the United States and other countries.

The screenshot displays the Newspapers.com Library Edition interface. At the top, there are tabs for Search, Browse, Papers, and Clippings. A search bar is prominently featured with the text "World Collection (1690—2025)". Below the search bar, there are input fields for Keyword, Date (optional), and Location (optional). The main area shows a grid of newspaper thumbnails, including "The 365 Booster", "The 45th Division News", "A Wreath of Cherokee Rose Buds", and "The A.H.T.A. Weekly News". Each thumbnail includes the newspaper's name, location, and page count. On the right side of the interface, there are navigation controls including a search icon, a plus/minus zoom control, and a "Save to Ancestry" button. At the bottom, there are arrows for navigating between pages of the newspaper.

1 Upon selecting the resource, the home page provides a search box for keyword, date, and location.

2 Select Papers in the top gray bar to search for a specific newspaper title or narrow by location to see the listing by state or country.

3 Once a newspaper page has been selected, use the plus and minus signs on the right side of the page to zoom in and out.

4 Save the page or article by selecting the clip, download or share icons.

5 Click arrows on bottom of page to view additional pages in the newspaper.
